The roots of the Aklys Defense Pugio PEN-15 AOW pen gun are traced from the Pugio dagger carried by Roman soldiers whom used it as a sidearm. Much like the Pugio (plural: pugiones) of old, the Aklys Defense Pugio provides a light and concealable device for use when in distress or for fun. Julies Caesar probably could have used his own Aklys Pugio when the conspirators stabbed him in the back.

From $495 each, comes as 22LR and secondary caliber conversions are optional!

Titanium receiver option is available and VERY limited!

If a custom color is chosen, select drop down and add color to notes.

THE PUGIO PEN-15 SHOULD NEVER BE CARRIED LOADED***

Even customize the aesthetics of your PEN-15 and get spare buttstocks, custom buttstocks, or different barrel options! All Pens ship in the standard configuration, options are additional and not open for substitution as to not delay your form 3/4 start!

The standard PEN-15 has threaded barrels for both available calibers and a thread protector included at no additional charge! The PEN-15 incorporates a loading gate lock that locks the bolt aways from breach for easy loading. Other cosmetic options and features will be added soon and your Pugio will be up-gradable at a later date even after you have taken delivery.
