Description

Looking for a custom paint job? Whether you want your firearm to be one of a kind, or are looking to refinish it and protect it from wear and tear, cerakote or gunkote are a great, durable option. Check out our gallery for ideas and examples of our work. Prices start at $125 and up.

Our painter is capable of doing just about anything, from custom camo patterns, to photo realistic paintings. If you can dream it, we can do it.

Contact for price quotes and any custom ideas you might have @ dclements@aklysdefense.com , stoups@aklysdefense.com, or 225-448-3167.

Disassembly / Reassembly Is always on top of the Cerakote coating prices. It usually ranges between $50 – $100 depending on the gun and difficulty. Contact for accurate pricing.

Cerakote colors that we do not normally stock will add an additional $25 to your order total.
